(by 1 lines operate value.)

Paris, April 8. 2.15 p.m.—The Germans renewed their attack on the first part of Haucourt, in the Verdun region, last night, and gained a soung in two small field works between Haucourt and Hill No. 287, he War Office announced to-day.

he war Office announced to-day. Fighting with grenades between Bethincourt and Chattaneourt uned to the advantage of the French. East of the Meuse there was intermittent bombardment of French positions. Near Fort Vaux the Germans made an attack nades, and were repulsed.

The text of the communication follows:

In the Argonne district there has been fighting at Fille Morte, where we exploded two small mines with success. At Hill No. 285 as have accupied the southern side of a mine cruter created by the on of a German mine.

THE GERMAN CLAIM.

Berlin, April 8, via London, 3.38 p. m.—The War Office an-unced to day the capture of French positions more than two kilo-stres wide in the Vardun region, west of the Meuse.

THE WAR SITUATION.

THE WAR SITUATION.

At this writing there is no definite towe of the result of the fighting near $1, Eloi, in which the Canadians are said to be engaged. The Germans claim that they have driven back the Canadians and re-occupied at least a portion of the trenches, or crater. That are said to be because this nort of fighting is of the sec-saw order. But it remains to be seen what is the first outcome of the struggle. We, however, must make, up our mine to have to jearn of lossess among the Canadian Doys. These will occur, whether success or failure be their portion. From other front's the news is generally said. The iterranus are still meeting with their match before Verdun, and if rains are made here, losses are mide clearly only. Revisian proprier is also towards Treblend, but it is used. The betternant are still the profession of the treatment of the profession of t

THE RIBLE SOCIETY

The sevent-vitth annual meeting of the local branch of the British and Poreign Bible Society, held in the Gossel Tabernacle, last evening, is described as the largest even held by the society in Hamilton. Perhaps The Man in Overalls had something to do with this attendance. However that may be the meeting descred to be well attended. This war, with all its horrors, is bringing neonle to a that may be the many that is be well attended. This war, with all be well attended its horrors, is bringing people to a closer realization of the real things that matter. We have been living more or less of an artificial life, busy here and there with little things. when the weightier matters have been neglected. Men cannot face death on the field of battle without a feel-ing of dependence upon the Almighty and the news that comes daily from the stricken field bears tidings of death so often that the people at home come closer to it.
